

2011 POLITICAL THOUGHT CONFERENCE (UK)

St Catherine's College, Oxford, 6-8th January

Supported by Cambridge University Press and Palgrave Macmillan

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Academic Conveners:

Jules Townshend, Manchester Metropolitan University (J.Townshend@mmu.ac.uk)

Lea Ypi, Nuffield College, Oxford (lea.ypi@nuffield.ox.ac.uk)

Conference Organiser:

Iain Hampsher-Monk, University of Exeter (i.w.hampsher-monk@exeter.ac.uk)

Thursday 6 th January (PM)
4.00-4.30	Tea/coffee
4.30-6.00	Prof. Ingrid Robeyns (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Equality of Root Capabilities
6.00-7.00	Reception
7.00-8.30	Dinner
8.30-10.00	Prof. Christopher Norris (University of Cardiff) Promesse de Bonheur or Cautionary Tale: "Aesthetic Ideology" Revisited
Friday 8 th January (AM)
8.00-9.00	Breakfast
9.15-10.45	Prof. Philippe Van Parijs (Université Catholique de Louvain) What is a good compromise?
10.45-11.15	Tea/coffee
11.15-12.45	Dr. Cara Nine (University College Dublin) Territorial Rights and Justice

Friday 7 th January (PM)
1.00-2.00	Lunch
2.00-3.30	Free Time
3.30-4.00	Tea/coffee
4.00-4.30	AGM
4.30-6.00	Prof. Fonna Forman Barzilai (University California, San Diego) Comparatives without transcendence: Amartya Sen's cosmopolitan moral psychology
6.00-7.00	Reception
7.00-8.30	Dinner
8.30-10.00	Dr. Christopher Brooke (King's College, Cambridge) Accidents of this sort will sometimes happen; for distress will force a man upon strange expedients: Jeremy Bentham's essay on the sex laws
Saturday 8 th January (AM)
8.00-9.00	Breakfast
9.00-10.30	Prof. Russell Keat (University of Edinburgh) Market economies as moral economies
10.30-11.00	Tea/coffee
11.00-12.30	Dr. Marc Stears (University College, Oxford) Realism and Radicalism on the British Left: Rescuing a Non-Utopian Socialism from the Past