

The Political Thought Conference

Thursday 3 January to Saturday 5 January 2013
St. Catherine's College

Conference Programme*

Thursday

- | | |
|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 16.00 - 16.30 | Registration and Tea |
| 16.30 - 18.00 | Lea Ypi (LSE): On trade and teleology: the role of commercial relations in Kant's philosophy of history |
| 18.00 - 19.00 | Reception by Cambridge University Press |
| 19.00 - 20.30 | Dinner |
| 20.30 - 22.00 | Patchen Markell (Chicago): The surprising Platonism of Hannah Arendt |

Friday

- | | |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8.00 - 9.00 | Breakfast |
| 9.15 - 10.45 | Rob Jubb (UCL): Playing Kant at the Court of King Arthur: Why Rawls and Williams are closer than you might think |
| 10.45 - 11.15 | Coffee Break |
| 11.15 - 12.45 | Duncan Bell (Cambridge): Before the Democratic Peace: Racial Utopianism and the Elimination of War |
| 13.00 - 14.00 | Lunch |
| 14.30 - 15.30 | Question and Answer session on the REF: Judith Squires (Bristol), Chris Brown (LSE), and Richard Bellamy (UCL) will lead the discussion |
| 15.30 - 16.00 | Tea Break |
| 16.00 - 16.30 | APT and Conference AGM |
| 16.30 - 18.00 | Anne Phillips (LSE): Revisiting Humanism |
| 19.00 - 20.30 | Dinner |
| 20.30 - 22.00 | Alan Finlayson (UEA): In Defence of Parliamentary Rhetoric |

Academic Convenors: David Owen (Southampton) and Dan Butt (Bristol).
All sessions are plenary and consist of a single paper followed by discussion.

Saturday

8.00 - 9.00	Breakfast
9.00 - 10.30	Ruth Kinna (Loughborough): Nihilism Before Nietzsche: imitation, art and life
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee Break
11.00 - 12.30	Margaret Moore (Queens University Ontario): Global Justice and Territory
12.30	Conference ends

* All sessions are plenary and consist of a single paper followed by discussion.

We are grateful to: Berghahn Journals, Bloomsbury Press, Cambridge University Press, Gazelle Publishing, and Routledge for sponsoring the conference.

For publishers' offers to APT members see our website:
<http://www.associationforpoliticalthought.ac.uk/sponsorship/>

Conference Convenors:

Gary Browning, Oxford Brookes and Elizabeth Frazer, Oxford.

Academic Convenors: David Owen (Southampton) and Dan Butt (Bristol).
All sessions are plenary and consist of a single paper followed by discussion.