

The Political Thought Conference

Thursday 9 January to Saturday 11 January 2014
St. Catherine's College

Conference Programme*

Thursday

14.00 - 14.30	Registration
14.30 - 16.00	Iain McDaniel (University of Sussex): Democracy and Imperialism: views from nineteenth-century Germany.
16.00 - 16.30	Coffee Break
16.30 - 18.00	Sam Chambers (Johns Hopkins University): Giving an account of the social formation.
19.00 - 20.30	Dinner
20.30 - 22.00	Diana Coole (Birkbeck): From population control to behaviour modification: liberty, coercion and biopower in pursuit of sustainable well being.

Friday

8.00 - 9.00	Breakfast
8.30 - 9.00	Registration continues
9.15 - 10.45	Justine Lacroix (Universite libre de Bruxelles): Hannah Arendt, human rights, and French philosophy.
10.45 - 11.15	Coffee Break
11.15 - 12.45	Maximilian Jaede (St Andrews): Why laughing mattered for Hobbes: pity, pusillanimity, and the will to power. Maximilian is the winner of the Cambridge University Press Graduate Student's Prize
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch
14.15 - 15.30	a) Professional development for graduate students ' Getting published ': Panel speakers to include: Caroline Wintersgill, Bloomsbury Press; Richard Bellamy, Critical Review of International Social and Political Philosophy.  b) Time and space for editorial board meetings etc.

Academic Convenors: Moya Lloyd (Loughborough University) and Chris Brooke (University of Bristol).
*All sessions are plenary and consist of a single paper followed by discussion.

15.30 - 15.45	Coffee Break
15.45 - 16.45	APT and Conference AGM.
16.45 - 18.15	Aletta Norval (Essex University): Making and unmaking of political worlds: imagination and embodiment in Krog and Wittgenstein.
18.15 - 19.00	Reception
19.00 - 20.30	Dinner
20.30 - 22.00	Avner De-Shalit (Hebrew University Jerusalem): The ethics of academic boycott.

Saturday
8.00 - 9.00	Breakfast
9.15 - 10.45	Laura Valentini (LSE): Samaritan justice.
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee Break
11.00 – 12.30	James Harris (St Andrews): Hume’s science of politics.
12.30	Conference ends

We are grateful to:

Cambridge University Press, Routledge, Palgrave Macmillan, Bloomsbury, Gazelle Academic, Wiley, and Berghahn Books
for sponsoring the conference.

For publishers’ offers to APT members see our website:
www.associationforpoliticalthought.ac.uk/sponsorship/

Conference Convenors:

Gary Browning (Oxford Brookes) and Elizabeth Frazer (Oxford).

Academic Convenors: Moya Lloyd (Loughborough University) and Chris Brooke (University of Bristol).

*All sessions are plenary and consist of a single paper followed by discussion.